

5. COSTS. Client will pay all "costs" in connection with Attorneys' representation of Client under this agreement. Costs include, but are not limited to, filing fees, expert fees and expenses, investigation costs, messenger service fees, photocopying expenses, and process server fees. Client's cost retainer is $_____.

KS
(Clients Initials)

6. DEPOSIT. Client will pay to Attorney a non-refundable retainer of $4,000.00 ($500.00 today and $3,500.00 on or before Friday, July 01, 2016). This is a 100% true retainer solely for the purpose of insuring my availability pursuant to the State Bar Rules, Rule 3-700(D)(2), Baranowski v. State Bar (1979) 24 C 3d 153, 154 CR 752. Client understands that as legal fees approach or exceed the retainer an additional retainer will be required and must be paid within seven (7) days. Attorney shall be entitled to a lien against all funds placed in trust for the benefit of the client. Dunne & Dunne, LLP is authorized to replenish client's retainer on the same credit card without further notice.

KS
(Clients Initials)

7. NO REPRESENTATION AS TO RESULTS. The attorney has made no representation or guarantee as to the results that will be obtained for the client. The Attorney represents that he will undertake to give his best advice and exert his best efforts on behalf of the Client.

KS
(Clients Initials)

8. ARBITRATION OF DISPUTES. The parties to this agreement agree to arbitrate all disputes that may arise between them through binding arbitration. The parties specifically acknowledge that their right to a court or jury trial is being waived by this provision. The parties agree that this agreement to submit any and all disputes to binding arbitration is designed to save the time and expense that would be incurred if the dispute were submitted to court.

KS
(Clients Initials)

9. INSURANCE. The attorney maintains professional liability insurance in the amounts required by the State Bar of California.

The foregoing is agreed to by:

Dated: 6/27/16

Kristian Secor
Kristian Secor

Dated: 6/27/16

By: DUNNE & DUNNE, LLP